Description

Lalique "Liberty Eagle" crystal sculpture, an example of fine French art glass. Crafted by the renowned luxury glassmaker Lalique. The eagle's majestic body and detailed plumage feature a soft, satin-frosted finish, which provides a beautiful matte appearance. This dramatically contrasts with the clear, highly polished crystal base depicting the rocky perch, which enhances the play of light and sculptural detail. The base is typically acid-etched with the "Lalique France" signature, guaranteeing its authenticity. This specific model, number 11643 (Aigle Liberté), stands as a powerful and timeless decorative object, perfect for a discerning collector.
