Description

A Large Mid Century 1960s Italian Hollywood Regency Terracotta Horse Sculpture The piece captures a moment of tension between two intertwined horse heads, often titled as "Fighting Horses" or "Kissing Horses" depending on interpretation, showcasing an expressive and dynamic aesthetic that makes it a true statement piece for any interior. Crafted from terracotta and finished with a rich, opaque white faience glaze, this sculpture embodies the glamour characteristic of mid-century Italian decorative arts. The monochromatic finish highlights the detailed modeling of the horses' musculature and expressive features. Approximate Dimensions & Weight: 40 x 56 x 22 cm 8.9 kg
