Description

A very beautiful carved sideboard featuring hunting and fishing motifs. Bunches of fruit adorn the uprights and a vine decorates the drawer. With its chimeras, it is truly inspired by Renaissance and early French sideboards. This solid oak sideboard opens at the top with two stained-glass doors and bottle-bottom moldings, revealing two carved shelves. A large drawer with cutlery compartments is located in the center. Two doors at the bottom also reveal a shelf. The pediment is removable. The carvings were entirely executed by hand and testify to the skill of 19th-century French cabinetmakers. In very good original condition. Natural solid oak. Delivery available in France and worldwide. Viewable at our warehouses in L'Aigle 61300, please contact us.
