Description

Arts & Crafts Sterling Silver Hammered Mug by S. Blanckensee & Son, London 1919 This beautifully crafted mug features a hand-hammered finish with a twisted rope-style handle and ornate filigree detailing below the rim -- hallmarks of the exceptional English craftsmanship bridging the late Edwardian and early Art Deco periods. The bulbous body, flared rim, and rounded base are further accentuated by a braided band design, lending both texture and decorative appeal. Fully hallmarked with the lion passant for sterling silver, the maker's mark SB&S, and the date letter "D" for 1919. Maker: S. Blanckensee & Son Ltd Assay Office: London Date: 1919 Style: Arts & Crafts / early Art Deco Material: Sterling Silver (925) Features: Hammered body, twisted handle,
