Locré Manufactory Milk jug Hard porcelain painted and enhanced with gilding Dimensions: H. 18 (cm.) Paris, circa 1810-1820 Part of a set of six cups and saucers (marked Locré and TGC); a milk jug; a litron teapot and a sugar bowl with a delicate decoration of leaf friezes and foliage in matt, burnished and dark green gilding. Very fine quality workmanship, early 19th century. The T.G.C. Paris mark in iron red (not underglaze) on the cups is period but unidentified. It could be either one of the many anonymous white decorators who bought the models from Locré or a retailer who ordered this model directly from the
