Description

Pair of Sicilian Charles X bedside tables made of rosewood and trimmed with rosewood, from the first half of the 19th century. They feature a wavy line on the front and straight lines on the sides, and appear to be made entirely of drawers. They are flanked by elaborate pilaster strips, with the upper section depicting cherub faces and the lower section featuring acanthus leaves. The upper section, housed under the top, features a drawer, as does the lower section, while the central section is a door made of false drawers. The top is made of gray Bardiglio marble, and the lower section features flattened onion-shaped feet. CHARLES X PERIOD: First half of the 19th century DIMENSIONS: W 52 cm x D 35 cm x H 97.5 cm CONDITION: Excellent condition, "restored."
