Description

Pair of Baroque-style candlesticks, 19th-century silver, early 20th century This is a pair of finely crafted 800 silver candlesticks bearing silversmith's marks and the "800" mark certifying the silver alloy. Aesthetic and construction characteristics: Height: 32 cm each Total weight: 3,100 g Style: distinctly Baroque/Rococo, rich in decorations and floral scrolls. Each candlestick features a cherub figure modeled with attention to detail, which appears to support the upper structure. The upper part consists of five candle holders, decorated with phytomorphic motifs and decorated cups. The bases are wide, stable, and finely chiseled with curly motifs and relief sculptures. Overall, the pair stands out for the quality of its workmanship and its striking appearance, typical of fine decorative silverware.
