Description

Pair of Art Nouveau bronze vases with a black patina, slender in form, adorned with a naturalistic high-relief decoration depicting vine leaves, tendrils, and bunches of grapes. The relief work is particularly well executed: generous volumes, finely modeled details, supple lines, and the elegant movement characteristic of the late 19th century. These decorative vases, with their striking presence, can be displayed both indoors and outdoors. Their dark patina beautifully highlights the plant motifs, giving the whole a sober and refined appearance. Features: Pair of bronze vases Original black patina High-relief vine decoration (leaves, tendrils, bunches) Very high quality Condition: very good Period: late 19th / early 20th century Dimensions (approximate): Height: 25 cm Elegant and
