Description

For enthusiasts, collectors, and interior designers, by Philippe Dauchez (1900-1984), in 1946, artist and official painter of the French Navy from 1948. Illustrates the world of poultry, including Black Bantams, Japanese Bantams, Crève Coeur, Silver Peincilled, etc. Printed in silk twill with rolled edges and primary colors, despite its great age (79 years) and imperfections due to time, including two tiny pinholes in the border and a few stains, this example remains a practically sold-out and forgotten model. Interior designers will find this a beautiful decorative object. Dimensions: 86 x 93 cm. Good condition, showing signs of age and use, with its original patina and patina; see photos for details. Free shipping within France. International shipping costs available upon request, depending on the
