Description

This exquisite platinum bracelet, weighing 38.10 grams, is a superb example of high-end craftsmanship, distinguished by its refined interplay of curves, light and texture. At its centre lies a natural emerald of 3.46 carats, displaying a beautiful green hue with deep, captivating tones. The stone is set within layered, diamond-pavé scrolls that enhance its colour and create an elegant architectural frame. The bracelet unfolds in a continuous sequence of stylized curves, echoing the refined aesthetics of the late Art Deco and 1940s period, where geometry softened into flowing, sculptural lines. The surface is entirely adorned with 220 antique-cut diamonds, amounting to nearly 10 carats, arranged to produce a shimmering, lively brilliance. With colour grades H-I and SI clarity, the diamonds
