Description

An elegant 19th-century mirror in the Napoleon III style, featuring a superb carved and gilded wooden frame. The frame is richly decorated with floral and foliate motifs at the four corners, as well as delicate relief patterns running along the uprights. Its original glass, slightly pitted by time, lends the piece an authentic charm and a patina highly sought after by antique enthusiasts. The generous proportions of this mirror make it an ideal centerpiece for a mantelpiece, entryway, or living room. This mirror perfectly illustrates the Napoleon III aesthetic: understated luxury, warm gilding, refined decorations, and a striking visual presence. Period: 19th century Style: Napoleon III Material: carved and gilded wood Glass: original, with natural wear Decorative piece: ideal as a mantelpiece A beautiful period piece,
