

Meerschaum Pipe With A Carved Man's Head - European - Late 19th Century

400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Meerschaum

Length : 20 cm

Description

Magnificent antique meerschaum pipe, finely carved, depicting a man's head with expressive and powerfully sculpted features. The carving reveals a remarkable attention to detail, particularly in the braided hairstyle, the facial expression, and the lines of the neck, testifying to true craftsmanship. The pipe displays a warm and deep patina, with beautiful amber and honey hues, acquired naturally over time and with use, giving it remarkable character and authenticity. The long, curved stem, with its graduated tones, integrates perfectly with the whole and emphasizes the elegance of the silhouette. Both an artistic and functional piece, it is ideal for lovers of distinctive pipes, collectors of meerschaum objects, or enthusiasts of sculptural art. It also makes a superb decorative object. The

Dealer

Bergmans Scott Fine Arts

Tribal art (African) , Asian art, European art and curiosities

Mobile : 0032475733376

Fax : scottbergmans@hotmail.com

Limburg

Lommel 3920

stem has been restored.