Description

A charming Parisian scene depicting the famous booksellers along the banks of the Seine. In the foreground, several open stalls display books, prints, and various objects. Three figures stroll or chat in the shade of a large tree, creating a lively and quintessentially Parisian atmosphere. In the background, an iconic view of Notre-Dame Cathedral, recognizable by its towers and spire, is bathed in a soft, slightly hazy light. The composition perfectly captures the ambiance of walks along the Seine. Oil on canvas, signed lower left. Note two small restorations (see photo of the reverse). Shipping within France: EUR15. Shipping within Europe: EUR25. For shipping to any other destination, please request a quote.
