Description

Islettes family plate - Early 19th century. Polychrome plate, fired at low temperature, traces of pernettes (a type of small decorative element) on the back, 8 lobes. Central decoration of a "combed" circle containing the owner's name, P. GREVERAND. Rim and background decorated with cornflowers. Off-center central cartouche (a manufacturing defect). See reference book. I am offering the same plate under a different number on this same site. These two plates could make a pair. The pair would be sold for 200 euros (a discount of 20 euros) with free shipping; contact me for sale under these conditions. Good condition except for one small chip at 12 o'clock (see photo). Diameter 22.5 cm
