Description

An elegant Louis XVI style commode with three rows of drawers, adorned with fine geometric marquetry in fruitwood. Each drawer front features distinct motifs--trompe-l'oeil cubes, chevrons, and Greek key borders--highlighting the piece's refined craftsmanship. The frame rests on tapered, chamfered legs and is topped with a veined gray marble slab. Original bronze mounts, finely chased handles and keyhole escutcheons. Minor losses to the marquetry are visible in the photographs.
