Description

A pair of modern "Veranda" armchairs designed by Vico Magistretti for Cassina, made in Italy at the end of the 20th century. The armchairs rest on black metal frames and are upholstered in turquoise fabric. Their distinctive design features wide, trapezoidal backrests and adjustable footrests, offering both flexibility and comfort. When fully extended, they measure 95 x 95 x 150 cm. The upholstery shows visible signs of wear.
