

Pair Of Early 19th-century Patinated Bronze Triton Candlesticks

1 950 EUR

Signature : William Tate

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 13.3cm

Height : 33.6cm

Depth : 12.7cm

Description

A rare and beautiful pair of patinated bronze Triton candlesticks , early 19th century, by W. Tate, dated 1832. This stamped and dated pair is very rare and strongly influenced by the works of Gian Lorenzo Bernini, Josiah Wedgwood, and Matthew Boulton. The fineness of detail is remarkable, and the quality is exceptional. Good condition considering their age and use.

Dealer

Important Pieces

Bronzes dorés, marbre, pierres rares

Tel : 00447767370247

Walton On Thames KT12