Description

This vintage oil painting on canvas featuring a mysterious scene was created by talented Russian artist Peter Kurbatov (1907-1985) in the mid-20th century. Kurbatov was an accomplished painter, graphic artist, and writer who lived a remarkably full life devoted to creative exploration. His impasto technique and confident brushstrokes define captivating tree forms in both the foreground and distance. Large stone boulders create expressive contrast with white snow marked by mysterious tracks leading toward them. Warm tones and shades predominate, naturalistically conveying the charm of a winter forest at sunset. The dimensional quality of the composition strengthens visual impact and clearly demonstrates the artist's accomplished skill. This original work represents a fine example of the
