Description

Chandelier of excellent quality and harmonious proportions, fitted with six small sockets supported by white opaline candles.

The wiring runs externally along the bronze arms.

Condition: fully and recently restored by us, in perfect state of preservation. The only imperfection deliberately retained concerns one crystal bobèche, marked Baccarat, slightly damaged (see last photo). We chose to keep it precisely because it is the only element bearing the Baccarat signature; this minor flaw, within such a richly decorated ensemble, remains virtually invisible.
