Description

An important and exquisitely crafted clock, made of finely carved giltwood, richly decorated with remarkably delicate floral, foliate, and scrolling motifs. The architectural form, inspired by Neo-Gothic and Neo-Rococo styles, presents a beautifully balanced composition, with superimposed carved registers forming a majestic and decorative whole. The circular dial, framed by a floral relief design, is adorned with enamel numerals and accompanied by slender, intricately worked hands. The upper section is surmounted by a richly carved pediment, while the ample, undulating base rests on molded feet, lending the piece a strong decorative presence. Features:
