Description

Caucasian wool rug, wool warp and weft, circa 1900. Very good condition. Normal wear throughout, considering its age. Borders and end stitches restored. Rare. The term Kazak refers to rugs knotted in a mountainous region encompassing Georgia and Armenia. The Kazaks include the small towns and villages of Bordj Bou Arreridj, Farchalo, Lambalo, Karachop, etc. This authentic Caucasian Kazak rug consists of three medallions with zoomorphic motifs, linked by hourglasses, symbolizing the passage of time. On the carpet's surface, motifs specific to the Kazakhs are depicted: the 'S' motif*, Medes stars (eight-pointed stars), and göl (flowers). This carpet, despite its age, has retained its original colors, which proves the quality of the dyes. Some abraches: a term describing a variation of tones
