Description

A Louis XVI style bonheur du jour desk dating from the early 19th century. The bonheur du jour is crafted from Cuban mahogany, embellished with brass stringing. It features a white marble top with a gallery, in excellent condition. The upper section opens with two mirrored doors and two small drawers. The drop-front is lined with brown leather in good condition. Two larger drawers are located in the lower section. The desk rests on tapered legs with bronze sabots. Viewable in our shop in L'Aigle, by appointment. Delivery is possible throughout France and beyond; please contact us for a quote.
