Description

Beautiful pair of wall sconces with double candle holders, made of finely carved wood with plant racemes and contemporary gold leaf gilding. Contemporary iron support. Central Italy, late 17th - early 18th century. The sconces measure approximately 78 cm in length and have a 15 cm diameter candle holder. The pieces have a first patina and have never been restored. They may require cleaning of the gold, which is very well preserved, and filling under one of the four torches. A certificate of guarantee is included with the sale.
