Description

Very large covered vase in worked bronze and cloisonné enamel, 19th century, of Chinese or Japanese origin. Magnificent chasing and excellent condition of the enamels characterize this large piece, 60 cm in overall height, which also boasts a beautiful patina. Of particular note is the exquisite lid adorned with a fowler. A masterful piece to place in a fine collection and as a striking decorative object. Shipping available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided.
