Description

Oil on canvas depicting a mother and child by the Limousin painter Nancy Delouis. This renowned artist was born in Limoges in 1941. Her mother, Yvonne Cheffer-Delouis, was also a painter. Nancy Delouis paints instinctively, without preparatory sketches, directly onto the canvas. As is the case with this painting, she favors intimate scenes where she celebrates the role of women in atmospheres of peace and gentleness. She often uses warm tones, giving her works a Fauvist quality. Nancy Delouis began exhibiting worldwide in 1969, starting in Florida, then the United Kingdom, Canada, Russia, etc. She is a member of the Salon des Artistes Français and has exhibited several times under the glass roof of the Grand Palais. This painting, which can be dated to the 1980s, is presented in a superb period
