Description

A Fine Pair of Empire Period Bronze Candelabra with Classical Figures circa 1805-1810
Description: This elegant pair of candelabra, crafted in patinated and gilded bronze, features Classical figures supporting a cornucopia. From it emerges a cluster of three candle arms adorned with hunting horn motifs. The candelabra rest on a cylindrical gilded bronze pedestal, finely chiseled with geometric patterns. A remarkable example of French craftsmanship from the Empire period, this pair dates from circa 1805-1810.
Dimensions: Height: 24 5/8 inches
Condition: Very good original condition. Presented in their original patina, these candelabra retain minor wear, adding to their authenticity and charm.
