Description

Oil on cardboard by Hippolyte Léty, depicting a view of the Rhône Valley from the Pilat. Signed lower right. Titled "The Rhône Valley, Pilat, Morning Mist," and dated October 1947 on the back. Good condition. Recent stained wood frame. Painting dimensions : 35 x 27 cm. Frame dimensions : 46.5 x 39 cm. Hippolyte Léty was born on January 24, 1878, in Vienne, Isère. Despite a career as a professor at the École des Beaux-Arts in Tourcoing, in northern France, the artist remained very attached to Isère, where he retired. His training was exceptionally solid; From his early training with Antoine-Christian Zacharie, known as Tony Zac (1819-1899), to his studies with Alexandre François Bonnardel (1867-1942) at the École des Beaux-Arts in Lyon, and finally in Paris under Luc-Olivier Merson
