Description

Pair of Brutalist lamps by David Marshall, circa 1960s. David Marshall was a renowned designer of the 1960s, originally from the United States and living in Seville, southern Spain, where he developed a highly personal and creative style. He used gilded bronze and polished steel to create a unique and decorative combination that was both pure and sophisticated. This is a beautiful pair with updated, modern wiring in excellent working order. They offer a striking decorative effect and a lovely golden light reflected by the metal surfaces. Shipping is available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate of authenticity are provided.
