Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Paper

Width : 30,2

Height : 39,5

Description

A pencil portrait of the character created by Ernst Theodor Amadeus Hoffmann in his literary works. This character serves as Hoffmann's musical alter ego, even attributing some of his own compositions to him. Robert Schumann's Kreisleriana, Op. 16, is inspired by this literary figure. The drawing is signed and dated 28 in the lower left corner and titled in the upper right corner. It is framed in a 20th-century silver frame. The drawing itself measures 16 x 13.3 cm.
