Description

Large, wide, and deep Chinese bowl from the Yuan Dynasty (1279-1368). Made of stoneware from the Cizhou kilns, it features a typical cream glaze and minimalist ochre decoration. The potter's wheel is clearly visible on the rim. It rests on a wide, straight foot. There is minor wear to the base of the bowl and two small dents on the foot. A very decorative piece for a modern interior. Perfect for adding to an Asian art collection.
