Description

Jean MAXENCE (1901-1962) Oil on cardboard 46x38 cm "Woman in a Blue Dress" Circa 1930 Signed upper right Born in Nantes in 1901, son of the Symbolist painter Edgar Maxence, he exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français from 1920, winning a silver medal, then a gold medal in 1925. He received a travel grant to Madagascar and was appointed an official painter of the French Navy in 1938. He illustrated books and is best known as a figure and portrait painter. This study of a woman in her home is characteristic of his spontaneous and charming style.
