Description

Three lovely, refined objects: shovel-shaped spoons for loading hotplates, braziers, or other braziers with glowing embers. They are made from bronze, cast from a single piece and finished with tool chasing. One has a foliate handle, a faceted stem with acanthus leaves in between, and a base in the shape of acanthus leaves. In beautiful, flawless condition. Directoire or Restoration period, length: 23 cm. The second, with its key-head ring and turned stem, features an openwork fleur-de-lis on its scoop. Louis XVI period, 14.5 cm. The third, an even smaller smoker's shovel, is very finely crafted. 19th century, 17 cm. This lot is available for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or PayPal. - eclectic - We are not experts, but have been in the business for over 50 years.
