Description

This important rectangular mirror, gilded with gold leaf, in the Louis XIV style and dating from the mid-19th century, is a remarkable decorative piece, distinguished by its elegance and refinement. The molded frame is richly decorated with flowering branches, shell scrolls, and flower buds, testifying to the artisanal skill of the period. The gold leaf gilding gives the mirror a brilliance and sophistication that immediately captures the eye. Although the glass has been replaced, the whole retains its charm and authenticity, making this mirror a centerpiece in any interior. This mirror is not only a functional object but also a work of art that brings a touch of luxury and grandeur to your decor. It integrates perfectly into a classic setting or can serve as an elegant contrast in a more modern interior.
