Description

This lithograph, "The Magic of the Hours - Sunset," is signed Henri Rivière and bears a red stamp in the lower left corner. The work is authentic and antique. Regarding its condition, note a slight difference in size between the top and bottom edges, as well as some small stains and fold marks. There are also some small stains on the lithograph itself. The colors are very fresh; once framed, most of the imperfections will be barely noticeable. Sold as presented. Henri Rivière (1864-1951) was a French painter, engraver, and illustrator. He began his career with drawing, then moved on to intaglio engraving, specifically etching, in 1882. Simultaneously, in 1886, he embarked on a career as a director and set designer, creating shadow puppet shows at the Chat Noir cabaret, enhancing them with
