Description

Degué: Art Nouveau chandelier in patinated wrought iron, with stylized plant motifs. The finely crafted structure features scrolls and leaves characteristic of the Art Nouveau movement, lending the piece a great visual lightness. The light fixture consists of a central ceiling rose in decorated glass paste, shaped like a bowl, accompanied by three matching side shades, also in nuanced glass paste in shades of pink and violet, evoking a landscape or cloud scene. The glass diffuses a soft and warm light, ideal for a refined ambiance. The chandelier is suspended by three wrought iron arms, joined at the top by a decorative element, ensuring a beautiful balance. Features: Period: early 20th century Style: Art Nouveau by Degué (signed) Materials: wrought iron, decorated glass paste Composition: 1 central
