Description

Immerse yourself in the unique atmosphere of Honfleur's port with this magnificent watercolor painted in 1957, depicting a typical seascape of the region. The artist captures the tranquility of a moment at sea, with a lighthouse overlooking a boat sailing near the quay. This delicate and poetic work is a tribute to the timeless beauty of French coastal landscapes. Signed by the artist, this watercolor on cardboard exudes a calm and restful atmosphere, typical of Art Nouveau.

Although the signature is partially illegible, it testifies to the authenticity of the work, executed with finesse by hand.
