Description

This pastel work by R. Gén captures the beauty and grace of the human body in a natural and elegant pose. Inspired by the Art Deco style, this finely drawn depiction of a nude woman is a remarkable example of 20th-century art, with its soft lines and subtle use of shadow to emphasize form. Signed by the artist, this work highlights the sensuality and simplicity of the model, while demonstrating a mastery of pastel technique that lends the scene a sense of fluidity and depth. It belongs to an era when Art Deco was characterized by a pursuit of harmony and aesthetics.
