Abstract oil on canvas by Henri Baviera. Framed in a black American-style box frame. Frame dimensions: Width 42 cm, Height 34 cm. Henri Baviera, born in 1934 in Nice, is a French painter and engraver closely associated with Saint-Paul de Vence. Trained from a young age in drawing, painting, and engraving in Nice and then in Paris, he opened a printmaking studio in Saint-Paul in the 1950s, which became a major center for creation and encounters. There, he associated with and collaborated with many renowned contemporary artists, including Arman, Hans Hartung, Gérard Schneider, James Guitet, Jean Miotte, André-Pierre Arnal, Manfredo Borsi, and other important figures on the art scene of the time. His work evolved from figurative art towards a personal abstraction inspired by nature,
