Description

Oil on canvas, signed lower right, depicting an interior with a desk by a window, a large open book, paintings hanging on the wall, and one placed on the floor, creating an intimate and warm atmosphere. The palette is restrained, with tones of gray and brown. One can infer that the Church of St. Etienne in Caen, seen from Rue Guillaume le Conquérant, can be seen behind the window. Indeed, this painting bears the signature of an Abbot who likely occupied one of the apartments allocated to clergymen at the Abbaye aux Hommes in the 19th century. Signed - Abbot François Cartel. Dimensions: Unframed 46.5 x 61.5 cm; Framed 57 x 71.5 cm. Free shipping within metropolitan France.
