

Provençal Walnut Sliding Chair, Louis XV Period

2 300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Walnut

Description

Elegant Louis XV Provençal Glissant Cabinet
Elegant Provençal Glissant (sliding/two-part) cabinet in solid walnut, dating from the Louis XV period (18th century). This regional piece of furniture is a testament to the craftsmanship of Provençal cabinetmaking. Key Details Material: Walnut with a beautiful warm patina. Style: Louis XV, featuring curved and dynamic lines. Sculptural Richness: Lower Body: The façade is richly carved with floral motifs (rose bushes, garlands). Upper Body (Glissant): Features three doors. The side doors are adorned with openwork pewter/silver-plated metal medallions set against a background of carved roses. The central door highlights symbols of abundance: wheat ears and poppy flowers. Metal Ornaments: Silver-plated metal appliqués on the

Dealer

Maison Lefèvre

Antique Dealer

Mobile : 0607032715

129 rue Garibaldi

Saint-Maur-des-Fossés 94100

pilasters and keyholes, and chased bronze drawer handles.Features Period: 18th Century.Condition: Very good overall condition for its age, beautiful patina.A rare and highly decorative piece.