Description

"Does" Pressed Glass Vase - Lalique France, Art Deco. Important pressed glass vase signed Lalique France, French production from the Art Deco period, circa 1925-1935. Ovoid in shape, this vase features a magnificent relief decoration of stylized does and foliage, rendered in satin-finished and partially polished glass, creating a subtle interplay of transparency and matte surfaces characteristic of René Lalique's creations. The fineness of the modeling, the depth of the naturalistic decoration, and the quality of the glass testify to the exceptional craftsmanship of the Lalique company. The "Lalique France" signature is present on the base, guaranteeing its undeniable authenticity. Dimensions: Height: 17 cm Diameter: 13 cm Period: Art Deco, first half of the 20th century Signature: Lalique France on
