Description

A rectangular side table in solid oak, in the Louis XV style. It rests on four cabriole legs connected by a central stretcher carved with foliate motifs. The openwork apron features a symmetrical design characteristic of this style. The tabletop is framed by a molded border and composed of geometric panels that highlight the oak grain. A stable piece of furniture with balanced proportions, suitable for use as a side table or decorative accent. Louis XV style, likely late 19th/early 20th century. W 111 x H 61 x D 47 cm
