Description

Original painting by Roger Ferrara, executed on a wooden panel, signed. The work presents a stylized figurative composition, characteristic of the artist's production, with a marked focus on color and the construction of forms. Roger Ferrara developed his work during the 20th century, outside the strict academic movements. His work reflects a personal approach, nourished by a poetic and symbolic sensibility, with particular attention paid to the balance of figures and the pictorial surface, as evidenced by his mature works. There are a few minor chips, visible around the edges, which do not affect the interpretation or structure of the work. Overall, the painting is in good condition.
