Description

Charming oil painting on canvas depicting a landscape with figures. On the right of the painting is a river, around which a small village, with small houses and a church, unfolds in the center and left sections. The surrounding landscape is naturalistic, featuring a clearing with trees and figures. Among them: a seated woman with a child playing around her, and a man herding an ox, with a horse and a dog. This is a tasteful painting, appreciated for its technique and pictorial rendering, capable of furnishing any space with a touch of antiquity and class.

Attributable to the Emilian School (Emilia-Romagna, Italy) of the late 18th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 63.5 x 95 x 1cm
