

Viking Silver Signet Ring, Crafted With An Interlaced Motif, With Two Lion Heads .

5 500 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Viking silver signet ring, crafted with an interlaced motif, depicting two opposing, facing lion heads with blue turquoise eyes. The silver interlacing on the sides of the ring, a typical Viking decoration, appears to depict the manes of the two stylized, frontal lions. An extremely unique seal, a museum object of great charm and rarity. Northern Europe, circa 9th - 10th century.
