Description

We are delighted to offer this exquisite antique Victorian 18ct gold ruby & diamond brooch c.1880.Celestial jewellery was increasingly in vogue during the Victorian era as renewed fascination with stars & heavens carried into fashion and goldsmithing. The crescent moon was a symbol of the Greek God Selene, representing feminine empowerment and change, just like the phases of the moon.This brooch is meticulously set with graduating rubies and diamonds, a timeless colour combination and irresistibly sweet.In addition to symbolism, such designs also offer the perfect opportunity to display high-level goldsmithing, with intricate and fine gold mounts, curves and angles to ensure the rubies and diamonds dazzle in their finest light.Splendid in a collection, but better yet, perfect for wearing with
