

Original 1917 Poster By Victor Prouvé: "america Struggles For The Independence Of Two Worlds"

60 EUR

Signature : Victor Prouvé chez Berger - Levrault imprimeur

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Paper

Width : 47 cm

Height : 61 cm

Description

The poster is divided into two parts: a reminder of 1775 facing the struggle of 1917. The symbolic figures evoke liberty and the quest for independence, with the representation of the ocean and a cruiser in the center, linking the two continents; below, a text recalls American independence and calls for unity against tyranny. Printed by Berger Levrault Paris - Nancy (birthplace of the Prouvé family). Signed lower right V. Prouvé and dated 1917. As is, with small tears, creases, and losses. Height 61 cm - width 47 cm. Victor Prouvé (1858 Nancy - 1943 Sétif (Algeria)) was a painter, sculptor, and engraver. From a collection of other posters by V. Prouvé created during the war (available for sale upon request).
