Description

Magnificent Provençal bread rack called panetière made entirely of solid walnut, dating from the 18th century. A very beautiful and typical piece of Provençal furniture used for storing bread. The upper crossbar is decorated with a bouquet of flowers, two arrows, and numerous branches . The lower crossbar is decorated in the same style. In the central section, there is a small door decorated with a small capital and three arrows. It opens with a large cylindrical iron hinge. The door retains its original lock and hardware, as well as its working key. The door is framed by turned spindles, a motif also found on both sides of the piece. The bread tray rests on Louis XV style scroll feet. Beautiful patina and in perfect condition. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and
