Description

Pair of watercolors (mixed media, watercolor and pastel) from the late 18th century, depicting pastoral landscapes. The scenes show tree-lined rivers, rocks, and hills, enlivened by small figures of shepherds and livestock. The palette is soft, dominated by blues, greens, and ochres, creating a calm and luminous atmosphere. The discreet figures are integrated into the landscape, which highlights a harmonious and peaceful nature, typical of 18th-century classical taste. Very finely drawn. - External dimensions: 36.5 x 25.5 cm each. Note: the drawings are covered with protective plastic. We can sell each drawing separately.
