Description

Charming small Louis-Philippe period side table or bedside table, crafted from solid cherry wood and veneer, 19th century. It features a drawer at the top and a door at the bottom, revealing an interior divided by a shelf. The top is also cherry wood. The plinth feet, clean lines, and beautiful antique patina are characteristic of Louis-Philippe furniture. This piece is sound, stable, and functional, showing minor signs of wear and age, but retaining all its original charm. Ideal as a bedside table, side table, or end table, in both classic and contemporary interiors. Delivery within mainland France: EUR70. Contact us for more information.
